

Courtesy of the Tishomingo County Historical & Genealogical Society
Original files are housed in the John Marshall Stone Research Library

Tishomingo County Archives & History Museum
203 East Quitman Street
Iuka, MS 38852
Phone: 662-423-3500
E-mail: tcarchives@nadata.net
URL: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~mstchgs/>

TCHGS COPYRIGHT NOTICE: In keeping with our policy of providing free information on the Internet, materials may be freely used by non-commercial entities, as long as this message remains on all copied material, AND permission is obtained from the contributor of the file.

These electronic pages may NOT be reproduced in any format for profit or presentation by other organizations. Persons or organizations desiring to use this material for non-commercial purposes MUST obtain the written consent of the contributor OR the legal representative of the submitter and contact the listed Tishomingo County Archives & Historical Society (TCHGS) with proof of this consent.

---

Farmington Baptist Church

Source: The Daily Corinthian, Reflections and Directions, Page 8-D, February 28, 1985.

The Farmington Baptist Church has an interesting and rich history. The church has ministered to the spiritual needs of her members for nearly two centuries. Although the exact date is unknown, existing records indicate that the church was organized around 1800. Some believe it was organized in the late 1700s. Civil War breastworks are still clearly visible behind the adjoining cemetery, and many weathered headstones are still standing dating back to the first half of the 19th century. Historically, the church has witnessed many notable events. Here in 1853, Civil War hero and founder of Blue Mountain College, Mark Perrin Lowrey, was ordained to the ministry. On May 9, 1862, a battle known as "The Farmington Races" was fought here between Major General Earl Van Dorn. In 1885, the famous debate between political candidates was marked by the address of "Private" John Allen on the church grounds.