

GUNNISON'S NEW POST OFFICE

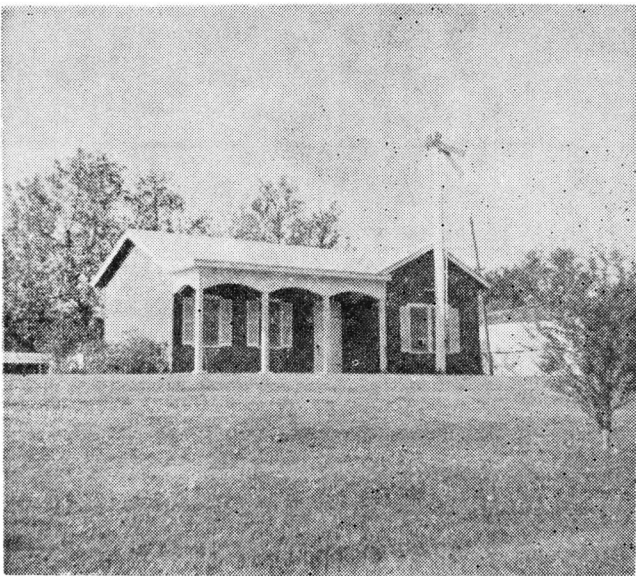

Fincher T. Blanchard, Gunnison's first rural mail carrier, in his horse-drawn mail hack.

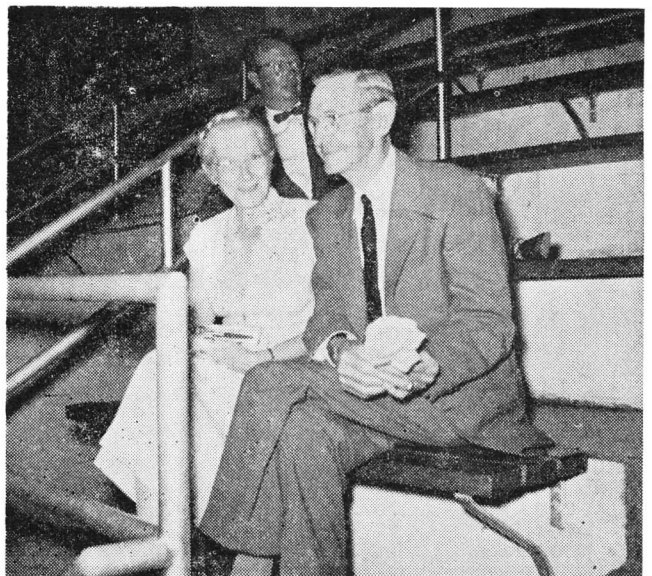

Gunnison (White) Consolidated School, built in 1922.

The old Wilson home in Concordia as it looked in the town's heyday.

Domicile of the municipal government. Former railroad depot, remodeled for Town Hall and Gunnison Public Library. John S. Ferretti was architect and building contractor.

The late Mr. C. E. Haag, longtime alderman and his wife, Alderman Edna G. Haag, Gunnison's first and only woman alderman, in the foreground. Mr. Ira D. Fowler is in the background.