patronage of his friends and the public generally.

In issuing this proposal, it is deemed entirely superfluous to speak at large of the advantages, this portion of the Western District, would derive from the establishment of a well conducted newspaper in this place, or to say anything, in advance as to the merits the Herald may possess. The former must be obvious to every one, and the latter is a matter for the future judgment of the public. And of the ability of such a place, in connection with a liberal country patronage to sustain a newspaper, the undersigned has no doubt. With the liberal support therefore, which he flatters himself, will be given to a project of this kind, every assurance is made that no pains will be wanting on his part, to render the paper both worthy and acceptable.

The DISTRICT HERALD, in its POLITI-CAL DEPARTMENT, will be devoted to the advocacy and unflinching support of the great leading doctrines or principles, contended for by the Whig party. To which party the undersigned professes to belong — But in the execution of this portion of his task, such a course will be observed and pursued, as is best calculated to meet justice to all parties, and facilitate just enquiries and the attainment of just conclusions, claiming in however, at all times as a right and privilege, to express freely and unreservedly the views that may be entertained, touching all public matters and public men.

The columns of the Herald, will be open to the free discussion of all subjects, but all articles of a personal or controversial nature will be excluded. And as to all political subjects, the undersigned more especially soli-cits a cool and dignified discussion, assuring those of the opposite party, that a fair opportunity shall be afforded of presenting at all times their side of the question. The complex questions of policy and party, which now distract the country, and upon which, imperfectly understood, as they are often by friends, and misrepresented as they hardly ever fail to be by political opponents, it is indeed of the highest importance, that the public mind should be fully and correctly informed.

The local interests of Brownsville, and the Western District generally, will receive the zealous attention of the undersigned. Internal Improvement, Education, Morals, Agriculture and Commerce, will also have a strenuous advocate.

TERMS.—The District Herald, will be published weekly, on a fine super-royal sheet, at $3.00 payable in advance or $4.00 at the end of the year.

All letters or communications addressed to the Editor must be post paid, or they will not be taken out of the office.

TERMS:—Three Dollars per Annum in Advance, and no paper will be furnished, unless are first strictly complied with.

Orders for the paper, or for a single publisher, JAMES G. WILSON,
