PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP,

TAUGHT by J. Chaney.—This system embraces the most simple and comprehensive Rules and Exercises, for the speedy attainment of a free, bold and permanent

CURRENT HAND WRITING, as adapted in its modifications to private life, the man of business, the Student and the Ladies.

The subscriber respectfully tenders his services as a teacher of this highly useful art. Having taught with great success in various parts of the Union (and recently in this town) his superior and easily acquired system of Penmanship, to the satisfaction of pupil and parent, he feels conscious that this favorable opportunity will not pass unheeded by the enlightened citizens of Holly Springs. 'Tis unnecessary to descant upon the importance of the art.—Every person is aware of its advantages; and, indeed, no one is fully qualified to transact the ordinary business of life, unless he writes an easy, rapid and graceful hand.—For further particulars enquire at the Union House.

Mr. C. will execute every kind of ornamental writing, such as Diplomas, Records, Visiting cards &c. on reasonable terms, and give private lessons in German Text, Old English and every kind of ornamental Penmanship.

YOU are hereby required to appear parade on the Public Square in Holly Springs on Wednesday the 27th inst. at O'clock precisely; with a view to ascertain the force of the Company—for the purpose of procuring arms &c.

Others wishing to become members of the Troops, will please attend on that day and present their names.

The most punctual attendance is required as the laws will be enforced and delinquents find.

A CAUTION.

THE public is hereby cautioned against trading for (or rating, as of any value whatever) a certain Bond which Pleasant H. Feltz of Chulahoma, Marshall County, Miss., holds on me for $333 and 25 cents bearing date January 1st 1839.—Having been induced to give such, in consideration of said Feltz' faithful compliance with certain conditions and promises, made by him at the time given. But which he has since conceived it to be more conducive to the taking of advantages of me, to refuse to comply with, and try to trade off or cancel into other hands unapprised of the circumstances of the case, or hold such up against me, regardless both of conditions, understandings, promises or obligations which he is under and I have therefore been constrained thus to notify the public to be on their guard, against such impositions, as I am resolved not to pay the same, as I not only have off-sets against such but he is moreover considerably indebted to me, as I can make appear on a fair and equitable settlement.
