go up at all; but, at about five minutes past six, on the evening of Friday, the 14th of September, 1838—(you want "particulars," so, there they are for you)—at about that time Vauxall Gardens, with all the people in them, went down! Tom, Tom, I cannot be deceived; I speak from the evidence of my senses, founded upon repetition of the fact. Upon each of the four experimental trials of the powers of the balloon, to enable the people to glide away from us with safety to themselves, down they all went about thirty feet, then, up they came again, and so on. There we sat quietly all the while in our wicker buck basket, utterly unconscious of motion, till, at length, Mr. Green, snapping a little iron, and thus letting loose the rope by which the earth was suspended to us, like Atropos cutting the connection between us with a pair of shears down it went, with every thing on it, and your poor, party, little Dutch toy of a town, (your great metropolis, as you insolently call it,) having been placed on castors for the occasion, (I am satisfied of that,) was gently rolled away from under us.—Poole's Crotchets in the air.

EXTRAORDINARY SUICIDE.

In the absence of the Coroner, and inquest was held on yesterday afternoon, by Wm. Doty Esq., on the body of Mr. Thomas J. Carmichael, of the firm of Carmichael & Jewett, card Manufacturers on Walnut street. The deceased it appears was last seen on the previous morning. The door of the office being found locked on the inside, when it was known that his partner was confined by sickness, induced suspicions that all was not right. The door was in consequence forced, when the unfortunate Mr. C. was discovered in an erect position, leaning on his desk, yet quite dead, and from appearances, had been so from the previous day. A tumbler, containing a mixture of laudanum and arsenic was found before him.

A balance sheet of affairs, apparently drawn up with care, showing a balance of $2,189 in his favor, with his will, was also found before him, with a note stating that a copy of the same had been sent to a solicitor in Framingham, Mass. No document was found nor reason guessed at which might show any inducement to the dreadful act.

A legacy of $50, was especially marked in the will for a young lady to whom the deceased had been paying his addresses.

The jury returned a verdict, that the deceased came to his death by taking poison, and the manner, which is a matter of course, is not to be mentioned.

der the direct superintendence of one of the most eminent, experienced and skilful surgeons of this city, and cannot fail to be extremely interesting. There is not a Medical Journal published in New York, and something of the kind has been much needed. We trust our Medical Department will, in a great measure, supply the want of so desirable a publication.

Foreign and Domestic News we will give as fully as possible, and we intend to copy largely from French and English papers.

Foreign Literature will meet with careful attention. Our resources in this Department are inexhaustible. German and French Literature will be particularly attended to. This Department will be under the direction of one of the finest scholars of the country.

Historical Sketches will frequently appear, and care will be observed to have them correct.

Biographical Notices of prominent men, will form a portion of the reading matter of the Weekly Whig. It is our intention to furnish accurate wood cut portraits of native poets.

The Drama we shall take under our especial keeping, and while we shall endeavor to do justice to the talented, we shall also closely criticise the wretched murders so constantly committed upon the stage.

Readings for Children will be furnished, and a wood cut will generally accompany them. Our object, in this case, will be to amuse and instruct the rising generation.

The Music of the Stage needs reformation, and it will become our duty to point out, as far as possible, some improvements which are absolutely required by the rapidly increasing intelligence of the community.

To the Ladies we have a word to say: we shall not forget your interests; balls, parties and fashions will claim and receive our notice frequently, and have, too, such notice paid them as will please. We are fully aware, that to render our paper agreeable, we must receive the patronage and encouragement of our fair friends. We shall endeavor to deserve it, by always furnishing something suitable to their tastes.

Tales of engrossing interest will always be found in the Weekly Whig.

Reviews of late publications, and notices of Novels and Romances, will be regularly given.

The Poetry we publish will be carefully selected, and we have already on hand several beautiful pieces from known writers, which will soon appear.

Embellishments. We have several capital wood cuts on hand, and others now in the hands of the engravers, one or more of which may be regularly expected in each weekly number. They are mostly from original designs, and will add much to the value of the paper.

TERMS. Three Dollars a year, in advance, and no paper will be furnished, unless the terms are first strictly complied with.

Orders for the paper must be addressed to the publisher,

JAMES G. WILSON,

Office of the New-York Daily Whig,
137 Nassau Street.

No letters taken from the Post Office unless post paid.

Communications may be addressed to the Editors and sent also (post paid) to the office of the Daily Whig.

Advertisements by long bill, will be charged at the rate of $100 per line, for the first week, and $50 for each subsequent week.
