

upt the public morals, and subordinate to the feet executive power and influence, the freedom purity of the elective franchise. The rapid extension of the executive patronage, and the misadventures and experiments of the party in power to increase and perpetuate it, will receive at our hands a decided opposition.

To guard against the machinations of the enemies of our domestic institutions, and to expose with a liberal hand, the time-serving sycophancy and degrading party spirit of their servile allies, who would willingly sacrifice us for their own aggrandisement, shall constitute no ordinary portion of our labours, and we will not receive such an employment of our time, if it will not contribute to the security and safety of our beloved SOUTH.

PROPOSALS

publishing at Hernando Mi. a News Paper to be called the NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN.

The "NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN" is designed to be strictly a News Paper, and will be devoted to every subject which may be deemed of use or interest to its readers. The objects of produce at New Orleans, Commerce, &c., the condition of the money market in every section of the country; politics, literature, and the fostering support and development of the resources of its own immediate section of country, will receive regular attention in its columns.

It is not intended that the "North Mississippian" shall be a partizan paper; but, under a government like ours, where the humblest individual is called to the performance of great and important duties, none should be luke-warm or neutral feelings in regard to the public policy of the country, nor have our views upon political, as well as other subjects, will be freely expressed whenever we may deem it necessary—and it will be done in the spirit which best accords with the feelings of temperance and courtesy. We might here give our views in detail, but deem it unnecessary, and will only state that we differ with the present administration of the General Government upon some of its most important measures, and have opposed in the last election, the elevation of Mr. Van Buren to the seat he now occupies; and, in the humble part we may hereafter feel ourselves called upon to take in politics, we shall appose his re-election. Having devoted about four years of our life to the duties of an editor, we flatter ourselves that we are not altogether unqualified to perform the task that will devolve upon us. We will use every exertion to render our paper worthy of public patronage, and trust that a syllable will ever be found in its columns calculated to wound the feelings of a gentleman whatever his political predilections may be.

The first Number of the North Mississippian will be issued about the first of May next, with entirely new materials, upon a

A CAUTION.

THE public is hereby cautioned against trading for (or rating as of value) whatever) a certain Bond which was issued by H. Feltz of Chulahoma, Marshall Co. Miss., holds on me for $333 and bearing date January 1st 1839. I have been induced to give such, in consideration of said Feltz' faithful compliance with certain conditions and promises, made at the time given. But which he has since conceived it to be more conducive to his interest, to refuse to give up, and try to trade off or cancel the same, hands unapprised of the circumstances, or hold such up against me, to the great loss both of conditions, understanding and obligations which he is under, and therefore been constrained thus to do. I therefore public to be on their guard, against such impositions, as I am resolved not to be the same, as I not only have off-sets against him, but he is moreover considerably indebted to me, as I can make appear on a fair and equitable settlement.
