The celebration of the glorious fourth must be our excuse for the late period of ties of Bank Commissioner, to which office he had been appointed by Gov. McNutt. With Mr. "Justice," we have nothing to do, unless he speaks by authority of Mr. Harley himself, in which case, we shall address ourselves to the Principal, without regard to the cat's-paw or tool, which may be employed to do the dirty work.—In the article alluded to, we had no desire or intention to cast any aspersion upon the integrity, honesty and moral character of Mr. H. In his station of a public servant, we had the right, it was our duty to express our opinions of his ability, and talent to discharge the duties of that office.—If upon this Mr. H. or his friends wish to join issue before the community, we are prepared at all times to give our reasons for the opinion we have entertained and expressed.—If there were other men whose capacity for the discharge of duties of the office were superior to Mr. H. surely 'Justice' to the State and her institutions demanded their appointment. If there were others who had "done the State some service" greater than any which Mr. H. had done, justice required that they should be selected.

We are now a Mississippian, identified with her interests, and devoted to her prosperity; as one of her citizens, we have a right at all times to speak of the qualifications of her officers; we shall continue to do so, and although "but yesterday from Tennessee," we have known talent and qualifications so eminent as that claimed for Mr. H., to spread the fame of its possessor even farther than an adjoining State, and until more satisfactory evidence is produced than the bare assertion of an abusive anonymous scribbler, we can see no cause for change, and shall still adhere to our former opinion.
