A Grand and Interesting
P A I N T I N G,
 OF THE destruction of Jerusalem, by Titus, is now offered for exhibition to lovers of fine arts; on Lagrange Street, Holly Springs. This scene occurred in the 70th year of the Christian era, and 2d year of the reign of Vespasian, the Roman Emperor, and is well worth the consideration of an enlightened community. The painting of which has been accomplished by immense labor and hard study. It measures 15 feet lengthwise, and 9 feet in width.
