

re of Mississippi, voted for a re-itting the Great Charleston and oil Road Company, to locate a r bank in this State. Neverthe-als show the fact to be so. What nmentary upon the sincerity of profession does this offer. Opposishment of a National Bank both nds of expediency and constituosed to the many banks of the ippi; to the increase of paper is-vote for a resolution to allow a tion, over which, we have no let-ol whatever; situated in another erts and profits of whose opera-to accrue, in any respect to our cit-advantage of our State, to estab-branches among us.

FOR THE BANNER.

ure of social intercourse is fre-oyed by the idea that once we id the ties of friendship are fre-strong in consequence of the l separation. "But we must ough 'tis hard to leave some ends; yet business says leave. of the year has now come, when a man, can with a degree of safe-the bustle of business, and be morning by the hum and bustle on his march to the field of the South. The joyous anticipah harvest makes him more de-renders labor pleasant. The e bachelor, has no peculiarly rms,—nothing but walls desecra-inmate's return, and chain him r dog-star shall make his sickly "Then, and not till then, can he e which should be dear." But olly Springs, the place of the auty, taste, intellect and modesty, igh I may be in another place, mory re-call the hours passed off ner's retreat. The social confab, circle, the evening promenade, pleasure with beauty by my side, glass, the party, the street fist-ar on the mind with great force, specialty in the North; and this is a reason for this brief address.

During the whole winter and spring, I was detained in the Courts at Raymond and Jackson, and prevented from visiting distant counties; and during the two months preceding the 9th inst., Mr. Howard, the Reporter of the decisions of the Appellate Court, and myself, have been engaged in the Compilation of a complete Digest of the Statues of the State, with references to those decisions, embracing as well the law in force, as those modified or repealed, on which rights are still to be litigated, with the acts of Congress relative to land titles and other matters of application here, and a Manual for Clerks, Sheriff's, and Justices of the Peace—a work greatly needed; and if the intervening summer has been actively used by any of my competitors, in the usual mode of electionering, either by tour, popular address, or any extensive distribution of printed circulars, I have the satisfaction of believing the work, on which I have toiled, will be an acceptable contribution to the Courts the Bar and the country. I have written neither letter nor circular, and have scarcely the time left within which to pass rapidly through a majority of the counties, on the track of one or more of my competitors, to tender in person my claims to your confidence and support.

In presenting those claims I shall disdain to affect either diffidence or humility. The first eight years of my youth were employed in Virginia and Tennessee in carrying on the current business of several Clerks' offices. From 1821 until 1834, I was exclusively occupied in the practice of law in Alabama, whose statutory system is mainly congenious with ours; and ever since the latter year I have continued the practice in this State. I assert it—not vauntingly, but as a fact important for you to know, that through those 18 years, without any intermission, the burthen of a heavy practice devolved upon me in the Chancery and Appellate Courts; and if a long experience could impart qualification to me for the high judicial trust solicited, I have received it. Never until now have I asked the suffrage of my countrymen, nor desired office. I seek that to which I now aspire, not alone for its salary, for my profession yields me a competency; but for the honor of a station at once as elevated as arduous, in which, by devoted exertion, a reputation, humble but well ear-néd, may be extended.

It was and still is earnestly desired by me, that the real and meritorious claims of the candidates should alone be regarded, and their political creeds not dragged before you for election or reprobation. To the aspira-nts to the National and State Legislatures "Certainly. Now you begin to talk tionally, and you may have as much as want. When you have done, put on your bonnet and go to school."

 We came off then.—Piracy

COMMUNICATED
DIED—In this village on the 19th September, Doctor ROBERT PATILLO, aged 64 years. The deceased was a native of North Carolina, but emigrated early in life to Virginia. He resided in the counties of Brunswick and Charlotte; and being engaged in the practice of Medicine was distinguished for his skill and success, in his profession. For many years previous to his death, he was a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church, and a realite indeed; in whom there was no guile.
 His last illness which was painful and protracted, he bore with christain fortitude; and his end, which he foresaw from the begining of his disease, he met with resignation and with hope. He died as he had lived, an ornament to the profession he had made, peace with God, and in perfect charity with all mankind. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

LAND FOR SALE.
 THE Subscriber offers for sale his farm containing 120 acres and situated one mile and a half south east of Holly Springs.
 There are 30 or 35 acres in cultivation. About 60 or 70 acres of this tract can be cultivated to advantage; half of which at least is the richest valley land in the country, and the other, though a little rolling, is rich and heavily timbered,—The balance of the tract is remarkably well timbered, which, from its proximity to Holly Springs, is very valuable.
 There is a tolerable good log dwelling on the place, kitchen, smoke-house and several other out houses, and well of excellent water.
 For terms, apply to Mr. Thos. Trimble of Holly Springs.

Y. S. NEWSUM.
 Sept. 29, 1839.—If N. B. The purchaser can be supplied with corn, fodder, pot toes &c. &c. on the premises. Possession will be given at the end of the year, or sooner if required.
 Y. S. N.

Wanted.

FOR C
 W BERT
 candi
 State.
 FO
 Ve a ORNT
 te for ll Cou
 W
 ounc for the
 ll Cou
 W
 ounc
 the rshal
 V
 ounc didat unty
 V
 ounc
 re-el ll co
 We
 BORG
 eriff ction
 POR
 W
 our date
 ctor, guin
 We
 RAVI
 ssor
 the
 W nou
 ndid ollec
 W
 nou
 le for ctor.
 A