prond to discuss the will be our bysiness to provided, always, hat ched in language uneffections. W. know end charity, the first would secribe it to the

of Newspapers. put in circulation in person who calls himaging me with swindsay to my friends and is not i "possible for to go into any printnt part of the country, e privilege and print ith firm of a handof Mr Grant of the Norld, I was induced yrnes, but soon found rge him for drunken The following certifier I swindled him or o give the scamp any I wish to caution the guard guinst him, as imposition from him s him to be a consumwill procure further y friends shall deem about 5 feet 2 or 3 ated look, he had on d ese, consisting of a pants, a coarse pair of els on foot and has no

Ir Foster to state wheth-Byrnes, was swinaveto state that he was !

ities we shall ever he appeared with the words "Saiety Fund" ady sourcement a feet upon their face. Their Banks have since er n of the same craft. been Incorported by the Legisla ure of that s who honestly differ State upon that system, and I believe it has now become the general policy of the state An I have a ver heard of the failure of but one bank belonging to the Safety Fund System, and I confess that I like the policy which he p rsued on that occasion much bet er than the place which he has pu sued upon the same subject since he was elected President of he Uni ed Sta cs, and it appears to me tha the one is directly opposed to the other. That policy was calculated to inspire confidenc in banking paper, and afford facilities for business. His present po icy a calculated to destroy confidence in bank paper and embarrass the business transactions of the countr ...

Now Mr. Editor as I ha e answered one question, I desire to ask one, can any thing be guthered or learnt from it that can afford any re is f to the business men of Mis issippi a this time of commerc al distress. I think by this time the people of this State h ve done "expecting too much from Gove nment" and have learnt that the present po vers that he will not ail t em at all. . ulth it they must rely upon their own resou ces to obtain relief. Cannot some system of equitable each nge be adopte: to lequilate the debts due in the State, and sime pledge of the anticipated crop or crops be made to e neel the debt that may be due ou of the State. The subjett is certainly worth the s neere consideration of business men of all

From the Free Trader. FUBLIC MEETING.

In pursuance to a call, the citizens of Natchez assembled . n the 14th inst.

Col. A. L. Bingama. was call d to the Chair, and F. B. Ernest. Esq. appointed Secretary. Col. Bin saman having explained the bject of the meetin!

A c lumittee of five, consisting of Messrs. Armat, Wilkins, Winchester, Duffiell and Barrow, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were almost unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the late pr clamation, issu d by the Governor of this state, purporting to be in reference to sa es or transiers of the State bonds, n w in p ssession of the Union Bank, a most viol nt, wanton, unwarr me ! and unjustifiable assaul u on the credit of 1000 ms, and 50 cents our State our cha ac er or honester and va PUBLIC MEETING.

At a meeting of a n mber i the itizens of Mershall County, held at the Court House, in Holy Springs. on Saturda, the 21st March 1840, J. C. Alderson was called to the Chair, and Jesse Lewellen, Esq. ap poin ed Sec ctar : the object of the meeting having been explained by

J. L. Totten, Esq., Maj. Joseph W. Chalmers offered the foll wing resoluti n, which was adopteJ:

Resolv d. That a committee of Twenty be appointed, to take into consideration the present pecuniary condition of the state, and prep re a suitable ad lyess and resolutions embolying the views of the County of Marshall, to be submit ed to a general meeting of the citizens of the count . on the first Mon lay of April next, and that the citizens of Ma shall County, and the State generally, by reque ted to attend said meeting without distinction of arty The iollowing gentlemen were appointed said committee.

Col Wm. L mpkin. J. L. Totten, Esq. Joseph W. Chalmers, P. W. Lucas, Esq. Jesse Lewellen, Esq. A. J. Caru hers, E q. Levi McCrosky. S . Hollin'. D. Mc Neil. Gen. A. B. Bral or I, Maj. An Irew L. Martin, O. D. Sledge, John A. Rogers, Col. W. Davis, Hon. P. W. Huling, A. C. McEwen. Wm. F. Mason, Jesse Mausr. 1, Dr. John Pitman, Peter W Johnson.

On motion of J. L. Totten, Esq. Resolved, that the proceedings of this mee ing be signed by the Chairman and Secreta y, and copies furnished for publicati n in the papers of this town.

J. C. ALDERSON, Chm'n. JESSE LEWELLEN. Sec.

[Communicated.]

The Repub ic of Rone was, we think, very similar, and not much inferior to ou Government. Like ours, all the officers were ele ted by the people, and the Legislative de dipted to the succes legislative por er in a Sen to and I yet too r surprise that rebuke which prople, it has eithe with applaus, re evidence of the g ident, he succeeds er, with a few more an easy step to th not a ready, (exce virtually, if not no the kingo Englai tution, en itled to the Sub-Treasury purse, and now he powers! These a d witted by all, w .. zeal.

There is nothing ernment changes it discovered by its un fer the name of principles, cone al the aid of party su through. History Oliver Cromwell r hand, upon the ho deal b dy of he mou ted hi thron in his hand, but a than he trampled i present a minist ati hobby of Demacra to the cople) when and whole course a i, they advocate th power and patrons ruption of governi tion of the people, 1 vestigate it; forge tir nothing to conce...l.

As n evidence of spirit which no y p quote the opinion o consider d the abl States. He says: which in absolute C to courts, walks ab an las individuels c ical purpo exingle selves into pa :1 8 m lic en le, but aiming power. The nomi the people-like a co ried and flattered no wing kspile inflamed, its prej d Such are the process public have fat en, who cannot trace the

O'r form of gove