TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

I present myself as a candidate for State Treasurer, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr Williams.

It is common with candidates for public favor, to submit to the people an exposition of their political principles. The duties of State Treasurer are plainly prescribed by law, and a faithful compliance with the law is all that is required of him. I therefore cannot see the reason that his political principles should be the test of his qualification for this office.

It then only remains for me to pledge myself, if elected, to devote my energies and abilities to the accomplishment of the end contemplated by the Legislature—a faithful compliance with the law.

JAMES M. DOWNS.

Jackson, March, 1840.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, PONTOTOC COUNTY.

Probate Court, April Term, 1840.

THIS DAY came into Court Benjamin D.
Anderson, Administrator of the estate of Aaron Root, deceased, and exhibited on oath an account of the personal estate and debts of said deceased, showing to the satisfaction of the Court that the personal estate of said deceased is insufficient to pay the debts of said deceased. Whereupon, it is ordered by the Court that a citation to issue directing all persons interested in the lands, tenements and hereditaments of said deceased, to appear before the Probate Court of Pontotoc County, to be held at the Court House in the town of Pontotoc, on the eighteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and forty, there and then, to shew cause if any they can, why so much of the lands, tenements and hered-itaments should not be sold as to pay the residue of the debts of said deceased; and that such citation be given by posting up three or more advertisements in the counties where the said lands, tenements and hered-itaments lie, and that the said citation be pub-

A BARGAIN.

THE YAZOO BANNER OFFICE is offered for sale. Having determined to go into other business, the proprietors offer this very valuable establishment for sale, upon the best terms, if application is made immediately. It is with one exception the most profitable weekly Printing Office in the State, and has an increasing patronage of the most lucrative character. Its advertising column, for the past two years, will evidence its immense revenue. This is perhaps the most fertile Cotton region in the State, and this is now no doubt one of the richest Counties in Mississippi, and in a few years will ship more Cotton than any County in the State. The patronage which the office has enjoyed must continue for several years, as the laws of the late Legislature, instead of shortening the time of the payments of debts, has so arranged it as to require that property shall be advertised now twice, when it was formerly but once, and hence to extend the time of paying debts.

It were a useless waste of time for us to indulge in a lengthy description of the advantages to be derived from a purchase of this office, as purchasers can best judge for themselves by calling upon either of the undersigned, and examining the same in person.
