The Petersburg Intelligencer remarks that "while the administration prints, with a mendacity which would put to shame the "Father of Lies" himself, charge Gen. Harrison with voting for a law to sell white men for debt, they entirely forgot to inform their readers that Mr. Van Buren has advised Congress to pass a law, one of the provisions of which will subject the citizen to be incarcerated in a common jail for the space of one month, for every five dollars of militia fines which he may be unable to pay."

DIED,

At the residence of J. J. WILLIAMS, Esq., on the evening of the 6th instant, THOMAS infant son of Dr. GEORGE B. PETERS, aged 4 months and 5 days.
