THE GREAT LINE FESTIVAL.

It will be borne in mind that the great Festival takes place at Boyd's Springs, six miles from LaGrange, on the First Thursday in August next. We penned an article a week or two since on the subject, and the fellow who writes small paragraphs for the Olive Branch printed at Oxford (not knowing the difference between the contemplated convention to be holden at Nashville, and the great Festival,) told his readers very confidently that we had invited the Democrats to attend the convention. He can wag on if he chooses, but we suppose a little more experience he will begin to learn something. The citizens of Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee, generally, of all parties, are respectfully invited to attend by the Managers. We have no doubt that it will be a time long to be remembered in the future history of the country.

As Maj. Barton "and other distinguished individuals will address the citizens of Marshall county" on to-morrow, it is expected they will tell us what sort of currency Mr. Van Buren is in favor of, and not forgetting the toast of President Jackson in 1829 "that no other currency was constitutional but gold and silver"—and Mr. Buchanan's speech on the "reduction of wages," not forget Mr. Walker's speech on a specie currency in 1840," Mr. Benton's speech upon the mint drops, "and the financial history of Holland, France, and Cuba in 1840," Mr. Calhoun's speech inviting our attention to the constitution "that no currency was constitutional but specie." Mr. Van Buren's message in 1837—and above all not to forget Jackson's letter to the editor of the Nashville Union, in which he says—"for the distinguished ability &c. in which Mr. Van Buren has sustained the Sub-treasury; and by way of conclusion, define, gentlemen, your positions, that we may know how to take you. We expect the Major will say, "as Roger Barton, I am in favor of an "exclusive metallic currency" and if so no doubt we shall have the pleasure of hearing an able disquisition from Mr. Barton on the specie currency.

Gen. Harrison has been charged with being a Federalist, and to sustain that position, the Locofocos say he was appointed to office under John Adams. We would ask the Locos if they are aware that the father of our country was twice appointed to office by this same John Adams. Do they also charge him with Federalism?

HERR SCHMIDT will give a Cotillon Party this evening in the Ball Room over Messrs. Gato & Hicks.

without stopping—Can't conceive what is the matter, unless it is sounding the death knell of Locofocoism in Marshall.

EXTRA GLOBE.

As the Extra Globe, under the guidance of the "heaven born," has this week made its first appearance amongst us, and as the civic (not military) achievements of our present President are glaringly portrayed, we would suggest to readers to bear in mind the following omissions which a faithful biographer should have noted.

1st. Mr. Van Buren's hostility to universal suffrage by the white Democracy of New York, both foreign and native; and his great love for property qualification, which was carried so far, as to be extended to Negroes.

2. Mr. Van Buren's opposition to the late war, leaguings with the Ultra Federalists; his intrigues against Mr. Madison. Altho' after Madison's triumphant election by the people, then Falstaff like, attempted to reap the reward of others deeds.

3. Mr. Van Buren's conspiracy to destroy Mr. Calhoun with Genl. Jackson, and thereby become heir to the throne.

4. There is nothing said of his correspondence with the hard moneyed despotisms of Europe, where labor is rewarded at from six pence to a shilling a day, for the purpose of gaining information, how to manage the monetary affairs of the government, which would enable him to produce the same state of affairs in our own country.

Gen. Van Buren's Bonaparteian conscription of 200,000 men to be officered from his own household—should not have been so ungraciously overlooked as it was his first military essay, (the reviewing the Troops at Trenton always excepted) and thereby again producing such glorious "black cockade times" for his "Democratic friends." What fine times for Loafers.

THE FIGHT.—We have seen an extract of a letter giving a brief statement of the difficulty between Gov. McNutt and Hiram G. Runnels, Esq. ex-president of the Union Bank, it appears that for some time past a clique about Jackson and Vicksburg have been in the habit of abusing and villifying Col. Runnels until forbearance ceased to be a virtue, an article appeared in the Mississippian casting severe censure upon the managers of the Union Bank, and reflecting upon Col. Runnels; the Col. it seems, thinking the present austensible editor incapable of penning "even the trash which appears in the Mississipfied and abused war worn veterans, voted the prime of life to the serv country.

They have prostrated the American insulted the great seal of a sovereign in order to keep themselves in power drawn forth from its retirement the tomb of Andrew Jackson, now on the veneration, and hawked him about from State to State to keep up an enthusiasm, which has become dirt and ashes: failing to the eyes of men whose sufferings have been wise, they have pitied him on the ground of Politics and fretted him into the man of his own peace and fame,—and at last have fairly before the American people a famous letter-writer to abuse men who have elevated him in his elevation to the Chief Magistrate of the Union.

They have not stopped here—they have scoundrels to perjure themselves by the publication of conversations purported to have taken place on Steam Boats and other places,—they have employed an unprincipled set of Democrats to take garbled extracts from the Journals of the Legislatures, and so shaped them as to be as possible, against the reputations of our "heroes." "have filled the measure of their covetousness." To please the Abolitionists, their chief enemies of the South, their Chief Magistrate, Van Buren, has aided in blasting the reputation of a gallant officer of the navy by recognizing a gross act of censure upon that officer, predicted by the NEGRO TESTIMONY. They have laid upon all the subordinate officers of the Government, even down to Deputy Postmaster, made it a part of their duties to go as far as possible to suppress newspapers of an opposite character, and to aid in the dissemination of the Globes, and other papers established for the press purpose of villifying and misrepresenting the conduct of virtuous men, and to set themselves up more permanently upon the ruins of American liberty. And to render the Government more independent, and less responsive to the people, they have attempted to create, a profound peace, a STANDING ARMY OF 200,000 MEN, and more recently grasped (in the shape of a sub-Treasury) the purse of the nation to enable Martin Van Buren to ride more triumphantly over the fall of a great nation.

Friends of human liberty, do you like the present state of things? If the Ides of November do not find you at the scene, where will you find
