THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI,
 Marshall County
 Probate Court, August Term, 1840 Stephen Lacy Administrator of Mary Downing, Jun'r, Dec'd.

Charles Downing, William Anderson and his wife Betsy.
 Nancy Downing, Martin Strong, and his wife Sally.
 And the unknown Heirs of Edward Downing Dec'd.

This day said Stephen Lacy, filed his petition, suggesting that distribution of the Estate of said Mary, among those interested, could not be made in kind, and praying an order to sell a negro girl named Jane, in order to make such distribution, and it also appearing to the Court, that the above defendants are not inhabitants of this State so as to be personally summoned. It is, therefore ordered by the Court that said defendants personally appear before the Honorable Judge of our said Court, at a Probate Court to be held for Marshall County, at the Court House in the town of Holly Springs, on the fourth Monday of October next, to shew cause if any they can, against such sale, and that publication be made six weeks in succession in the Conservative and Holly Springs Banner a newspaper printed in the town of Holly Springs, Mississippi.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court at Office, August 25th, 1840.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
CONSERVATIVE
And Holly Springs Banner.

The Proprietor has been induced to issue a PROSPECTUS, in consequence of a new arrangement made for the purpose of laying before the Public the various Public Documents having a direct bearing upon the coming contest for the Presidency.
 Falsehood, bribery, talent openly purchased as cattle in the market, the whole weight of an immense executive patronage, and the fierce fires of unrelenting proscription with the Postoffice department trained and enlisted as a regular political engine to scatter on the one hand and suppress on the other, one brought to bear in favor of the oppressors of their country. We fellow-citizens, have nothing to counteract this fearful odds but the generous impulse of individual patriotism, the suffrages of an untaught and untried people, the proud and glorious consciousness of battling in the cause of a government which has descended to us, as the richest inheritance of noble sires. The blow must be made between this 1st November.—Come then to the rescue, and treat your opponents now and forever, that "a day's hour of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage."
