EAGLE HOTEL.

Jackson, Mississippi

THIS Establishment is now open for reception of travellers and visitors. The house has been closed for the last few months for the purpose of putting it in complete repair. The present prices will enable the subscriber to pay the charges to nearly one half. From its situation, being North of the Capitol and within thirty steps of the same, it is the most convenient situation in the city. There is also attached a large Cistern, affords the best water in the place. The stables are large and commodious, tended by experienced ostlers.

Females accommodated at all times. The office of the Lexington kept here.

Oct. 3, 1840.—31—3w.

The Natchez Courier, Vicksburg, and the Holly Springs Conservative, publishers of the above, will please copy to the amount of five dollars, each, and forward their accounts to the Eagle for payment.

Law Partnership.

JAS. RUCKS & WILLIAM Y.

WE HAVE formed a partnership for the practice of the Law. We attend to all business in the High Court of Errors and Appeals—the Superior Court of Chancery—the Federal Court in the city of Jackson—and one or the other of them will attend the Circuit court of Hinds and Rankin counties, held at Canton and Raymond. Their office is the same heretofore occupied by Hays and Yerger.

City of Jackson, Jan. 27, 1840.

The Mississippian, Vicksburg Weekly Springs Banner, Raymond Towns Whig Advocate, will insert for three months, and forward their accounts to this office.—Southern Su Feb 8 44—
