

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

Irkin Echols } Superior Court
 v.s } Chancery,
 James Davis et al. } Oct. Term 1840

Upon opening the matters of this bill, and appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendants Jesse B. Clemants, John W. Land, and David Hubbard, are not inhabitants of this State, but reside beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary process of this Court cannot be served upon them. Therefore it is ordered that unless the said defendants appear before the Chancellor at the Court room in the town of Oxford, on the third Monday in April next plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint, the several allegations thereof will be taken for confessed, and such order and decree made thereon as the Chancellor shall deem equitable, and just. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in the Holly Springs Conservative, once a week for two Months successively, issued Nov. 17th 1840.

PROPOSAL

For publishing at the Town of Holly Springs, a weekly Newspaper,

THE OLD FORT BULLETIN

THE undersigned proposes the new town of Fort Pickens Journal, to bear the name "FORT BULLETIN"—as soon as sufficient patronage is obtained to render the enterprise profitable.

The proposed paper is a journal of NEWS—in the word, a NEWSPAPER devoted to the dissemination of Agricultural and Mechanical Information to Internal Improvement. A great work designed to connect the Atlantic coast with the Gulf (to the interest of the new La Grange and Memphis Company, will give a general circulation of interest in every part of the world; and also furnish a medium of Literary, Miscellaneous Intelligence, to render it a pleasing and profitable fire side.

The commercial Desart requires strict attention. Correspondence established with the principal points in the United States, furnish the latest and most accurate News, Prices Current, and Exchange Intelligence and Domestic, for the information of Merchants, the Planter, the all whose interest is in any way connected with trade. As the point of view is not to be no inconsiderable Town, and will command a large amount of trade from a rich and enterprising country, the "Bulletin" will be well patronized for that reason.
 The Agricultural, Mechanical and Internal Improvement Department neglected—and no pains spared to render the "Bulletin" an interesting and profitable periodical.
 Party Politics will be excluded from the columns of the "Bulletin," with its character and design of the Editor. An im-
