PROPOSALS,

For publishing at the Town of Fort Pickering, a weekly Newspaper, to be called

THE OLD FORT BULLETIN.

THE undersigned proposes to publish, at the new town of Fort Pickering, a Weekly Journal, to bear the name of the "OLD FORT BULLETIN"—to be commenced as soon as sufficient patronage shall be offered to render the enterprise profitable.

The proposed paper is designed to be a journal of NEWS—in the strict sense of the word, a NEWSPAPER. It will be devoted to the dissemination of Commercial, Agricultural and Mechanical intelligence; to Internal Improvements (particularly the great work designed to connect the Southern Atlantic coast with the Mississippi River;) to the interest of the new Town and the La Grange and Memphis Rail Road Company; will give a general epitome of the occurrences of interest in every quarter of the world; and also furnish a sufficient quantity of Literary, Miscellaneous and Light Reading, to render it a pleasing companion for the fire side.

The commercial Department will receive strict attention. Correspondence will be established with the principal Commercial points in the United States, in order to furnish the latest and most accurate Commercial News, Prices Current, Money Markets and Exchange Intelligence, both Foreign and Domestic, for the information of the Merchants, the Planter, the Mechanic, and all whose interest is in any way connected with trade. As the point of location is destined to be no inconsiderable Commercial Town, and will command a large amount of trade from a rich and extensive interior country, the "Bulletin" will no doubt be well patronized for that reason alone.

The Agricultural, Mechanical and Internal Improvement Departments will not be neglected—and no pains or expense will be spared to render the "Bulletin" a valuable and interesting periodical.

Party Politics will be excluded from the columns of the "Bulletin," as inconsistent with its character and designs, and disposition of the Editor. An impartial and brief sketch of political events, together with a summary of the proceedings of the National and State Legislatures, will be regularly given in the news department. As nearly all the papers in this and the adjoining States are of a political character, it is be-
