

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

Larkin Echols } Superior Court
 v.s } Chancery.
 James Davis et al. } Oct. Term 1840

Upon opening the matters of this bill, and appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendants Jesse B. Clements, John W. Land, and David Hubbard are not inhabitants of this State, but reside beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary process of this Court cannot be served upon them. Therefore it is ordered that unless the said defendants appear before the Chancellor at the Court room in the town of Oxford, on the third Monday in April next plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint, the several allegations thereof will be taken for confessed, and such order and decree made thereon as the Chancellor shall deem equitable, and just. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in the Holly Springs Conservative, once a week for two Months successively, issued Nov. 17th 1840.

PROPOSALS,

For publishing at the Town of Pickering, a weekly Newspaper, to be

OLD FORT BULLETIN

THE undersigned proposes to the new town of Fort Pickering, Journal, to bear the name of FORT BULLETIN—to be as soon as sufficient patronage shall be obtained to render the enterprise profitable.

The proposed paper is designed to be a journal of NEWS—in the strictest sense of the word, a NEWSPAPER, devoted to the dissemination of Agricultural and Mechanical Information to Internal Improvements (particularly great work designed to connect the eastern Atlantic coast with the Mississippi River;) to the interest of the new Town of La Grange and Memphis Railroad Company; will give a general epitome of the current events of interest in every quarter of the world; and also furnish a sufficient quantity of Literary, Miscellaneous and Interesting matter, to render it a pleasing companion to the fire side.

The commercial Department will attract strict attention. Correspondence established with the principal Cities and Ports in the United States, in order to furnish the latest and most accurate information of News, Prices Current, Money and Exchange Intelligence, both Foreign and Domestic, for the information of Merchants, the Planter, the Manufacturer, and all whose interest is in any way connected with trade. As the point of location is situated to be no inconsiderable distance from the Town, and will command a large amount of trade from a rich and extensive country, the "Bulletin" will no doubt be well patronized for that reason.

The Agricultural, Mechanical and Internal Improvement Departments will be neglected—and no pains or expense spared to render the "Bulletin" an interesting periodical.

Party Politics will be excluded from the columns of the "Bulletin," as it is not with its character and designs, a matter of the Editor. An impartial sketch of political
