If Mexico shall accept the mediation of England, this armistice will take place within thirty days after the Mexican government is notified of the convention by the British minister in Mexico. As the despatches of Lord Palmerston relating to this subject have already been forwarded from Galveston, we may expect intelligence from Mexico relative to the armistice, about the 1st of March."

Five Indians, says the Austin Sentinel of the 28th Jan. were killed in Webber's prairie, 12 miles below that city, on Monday previous, a large party of citizens were in pursuit of another party, discovered in that neighborhood.

There was a performance at Houston theatre on the night of the 30th of January, the object appears to have been to carry out some election purpose.

There was a rumor at Houston that Gen. Sam Houston had been wounded in a duel with D. G. Burnett, but it was thought to be a hoax.

"GIVE ME BACK MY YOUTH!"—It was a beautiful sentiment of one whom her husband had proposed to put her away—"Give me back that which I brought to you." And the man answered in his vulgar coarseness of soul, "your fortune I return to you" "I thought not of my fortune," said the lady; "give me back my real wealth; give me back my beauty and my youth—give me back my virginity of soul—give me back the cheerful mind and the heart that had never been disappointed."

BEAUTIFUL SIMILE—When the cloud of disunion rolled up heavy from the south, it clad our political skies in sackcloth. It hung about us silent, dark, and terrible! And when the sleeping thunderbolt appeared ready at every moment to leap from its stormy home, and explode upon the very heart-stone of the Union—when our great men in authority stood impotent as infancy, to avert the awful catastrophe, the immortal Clay, with an arm more powerful than Franklin, disarmed the cloud of its wrath, till its darkness dissolved in purple and gold; and the rainbow came out and sat like an Angel of peace on its glittering folds.—Low Jour.
