THE SENATE

Ended its Extra Session yesterday, adjourning sine die after passing upon all the business which the President desired to lay before them.

Public rumor and private letters having spread far and wide the informatson of an unfortunate personal collision which occurred in debate in the Senate, one day last week, between Senator CLAY of Kentucky and Senator KING of Alabama, it gives us pleasure to state that a reconciliation of the difference between these gentlemen, after reciprocal explanation, through the intervention of Mr.
Preston, took place in presence of the Senate. This termination of the difference, putting an end to a painful suspense, was received by Senators with great gratification, and by the crowded galleries with irrepressible tokens of the sincerest satisfaction.

Nat. Intel.

MARRIED.

In this place on Wednesday, the 31st of March, by the Rev. Samuel Davidson, Mr.
William E. Epps, of this town, to Miss Emily Turla, of the Island of Cuba.

It is past, and now ye are one,
To all the joys and ills of life,
Be kind each, and your bliss b'gun,
Shall only end with MAN and WIFE.
Be pious, and the chain that has bound you,
Even by death shall never be riven;
'Twill continue in magic around you,
And reach when ye part, up to Heaven.

A LIST OF LETTERS,
