

they have not only, become in a great degree irksome. in their details, but are in many instances unfit to be read by any but the wildest adherents of party, or the blindest votaries of the doctrine of political magnetism. He will therefore strive to furnish something for the eye of the agriculturist, the economist, the moralist, the poet, and the mirthful, together with the politician; and tho' it may be but a taste at a time, yet we estimate it particularly proper that all classes of readers, should be attended to cleverly.—With this course marked out, the undersigned hopes in travelling it, to meet with the patronage of a generous public.

Most Respectfully,

THOMAS A. BALCONER

April 23d. 1841.

T. H. CAHAL Esqr. has been nominated as the Whig candidate for Congress in Gov. Polk's district.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

It will be seen from our latest advices that Mr. Picken's Report is about to have the effect which Messrs. Adams and Grant apprehended. We have not room for the debates in Parliament, which are quite warlike,

On Last Saturday, at 2 o'clock P. M. our Citizens without party distinction, met to make preparations for paying the last tribute of love and respect for the departed Harrison.—He that has a heart devoted to the interest of his Country, must look upon his death, in the bitterness of patriotic grief, as a national loss—we hold it to be the duty of every man in the Nation, be he of whatever party he may, when such a calamity befalls his Country to take it to heart. He was her chosen President, chosen by a constitutional majority of the people. And from such an elevation, he is as high above the low meannesses of party contention, as the mountain top, is above the fogs of the morning, whose summit as it were, ever bathed in the glory of Freedom's Sun, and visited a'one by the Starry-winged Genius of the Nation, cheered on in its flight by the magic bouancy of a people's love.

On the above occasion, we witnessed a number of those who had been opposed to the deceased patriot politically, respectfully and at-

By order of { A. B. BRADFORD,
WILLIAM ARTHUR,
JOHN PITMAN, } Committee of Arrangements

At a meeting of the Citizens of Holly Springs and vicinity, held at the Court house on the 17th inst. on motion of H. W. Walter Esq. Peter W. Lucas Esq. was called to the Chair, and James C. Alderson appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been explained by the Chair, the following preamble and resolutions, submitted by H. W. Walter Esq. after a few very appropriate remarks—were adopted:

Whereas. By sudden death we are bereaved of our beloved President WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON; a man distinguished alike for his talents and his purity of motive and action; possessed of every virtue that can endear man to his fellow; exemplary in public, and affectionate, kind, and hospitable in private life; respected for his integrity, admired for his talents, and honored for his patriotism; possessing energy sufficient to compass most ends, yet governed by patriotism in giving that energy its proper and legitimate direction; enjoying talents for command, yet tempered with kindness to enlist the affections, and endowed with firmness to secure the esteem of subordinates; the idol of his soldiers, yet the dread and scourge of his enemies; daring in his designs, and fearless in their execution; distinguished in the councils, and beloved as the President of Union, and by his death spreading sorrow and gloom over the nation; therefore be it

Resolved That in common with others of all portions of the Union we deeply deplore the death of our distinguished fellow-citizen the President of the United States.

Resolved: That by his death the Nation has lost a patriot and a statesman, the West her father and benefactor; and the constitution an able and zealous supporter.

Resolved. That his eminent political and military services, entitle him to the gratitude of a free and independent nation and his name to an honorable rank among the most distinguished of her heroes, her patriots, and her statesmen.

Resolved That all his public acts, were the offspring of a desire to advance the inter-

HARRISON had not died. The probability, to be no change of measures in consequence of Mr. Tyler's accession to the Presidency. The foll the National Intelligencer, as we ter of the Baltimore Patriot, w with deep interest

By the extraordinary despatch sending the official intelligence President, at Williamsburg, and patch by him in repairing to the ernment, John Tyler, now Pres UNITED STATES, arrived in this day morning, at 5 o'clock, and to at Brown's Hotel.

At 12 o'clock all the heads ments, except the Secretary of (who has not yet returned to th his visit to his family,)waited up pay him their official and perso They were received with all the and kindness which characteri President. He signified his dee the public calamity sustained by President HARRISON, and expres found sesibility to the heavy res so suddenly devolved upon hi spoke of the present state of things concern and seriousness, and m his wishes that the several head ments would continue to fill the p they now respectively occupy, a dence that they would afford al their power to enable him to c administration of the Governm fully.

The President then took and the following oath of office:

"I do solemnly swear that I w execute the office of President TED STATES, and will, to the b bility, preserve, protect, and def stitution of the United States.

JOHN

"April 6, 1841.
"DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,
"City and county of Washin.
"I, William Cranch, chief circuit court of the District of C tify that the above named Johr sonally appeared before me this though he deems himself qua form the duties and exercise the office of President on the de liam Henry Harrison, late Pre United States, without any oth that which he has taken as Vi yet, as doubts may arise, and caution, took and subscribed t oath before me.

"April 6, 1841. W. C

"Hallo, there! I say! Murder gridirons! brimstone! Halloah-ah what is the matter? What is "Why, I'm out of tobacco!— ye?"