Job Printing

PRINTED AT THIS OFFICE.

cream of the news, the latest and most important having the preference. It will be published on Tuesday's, and will thus anticipate the the Saturday papers of the same week several days. In this circumstance the publishers anticipate the creation of a large mail demand for the Miscellany, among readers who are at present provided with one or more of the Weekly Sheets which are almost universally issued on Saturdays.

In cheapness and excellence the Miscellany will challenge comparison with any other periodical in the World! In point of embellishment, and in general literary character, the Miscellany will be identical with the Brother Jonathan; and unexampled popularity of that sheet induces the publishers to think that nothing farther is necessary than to state the TERMS.

The first number of Jonathan's Miscellany will be issued on Tuesday, June 20th, and forwarded to subscribers by Mail at the following cheap rates: For a Single Copy, ONE year, One Dollar & Fifty Cents.

FIVE COPIES, one year, for FIVE DOLLARS, in money current in the State of New York or in Boston.

For the Dollar Magazine, (monthly,) and Jonathan's Miscellany, (weekly,) one year, to one address, TWO DOLLARS.

Letters must always come to us free of postage—otherwise they are never taken from the Post Office. Postmasters are authorized by law to frank letters containing subscription money, and will generally do so if applied to.

Orders must in all cases be accompanied by the cash.

Single copies will always be on sale at all the News offices in the United States, at six cents.

Letters should be addressed to WILSON & COMPANY, Publishers, 165 Nassau Street, New York. Office of Brother Jonathan, New York, June 4th, 1841.
