LEGAL BANKRUPT LAW.

or of our latest advices from think it highly probable that a l be enacted before the adjourns, a brief of which taken from ss, will be found in another co-ch a law, based upon the prinl prepared by Mr Webster, is present condition of the coungard to the dictates of humani-lightened public policy—we do doubt. A similar law has long England, and the evil results ents of the present measure have its operation, have not been felt

In the face of this fact, it is ir to predict consequences from g ourselves, altogether different milar English statutes.

The GUARDIAN, a monthly, of sixteen large pages, published at Columbia, Ten., at the low price of $1-50 per annum, is a work of great merit. The July No. is received, and filled with rich and interesting original matter. We would earnestly recommend it to the friends of western literature.

The first No. of 'The ANTI-BONDMAN,' published at Vicksburg, by James S. Fall, at $1 for four months, is received. Mr. Fall is a clear, vigorous writer, and there is no mistake but he will keep the "supplement" flying, until our "hewer of wooden nutmegs" is installed into the office of Governor.

The Irish agitator, O'Connell, though defeated in his favorite district, Dublin, was elected in two others, in the late elections in that country.

The money stoken from the Bank at Jacksonville, Ill., has been recovered. One of the officers of the bank, H. M. Towns, was the rogue.

STATE TREASURER.—A letter appears in the last Jackson papers from Mr. Crawley withdrawing his name as a candidate for State Treasurer. His reasons for doing so he gives as private and personal, and expresses a warm attachment to the Whig cause.

Upon the subject of a whig candidate for this office, the Jackson Southron says:

"The Whig Central Committee to whom this letter is addressed, by virtue of the authority vested in them, have authorized us to substitute for the name of Mr. Crawley, that of Dr. J. S. CURTIS, the present incumbent, and his name will accordingly be found in the ticket. It is requested that the whig papers throughout the State, will make the alteration."

The New Orleans Bee contradicts the reports which have been in circulation in relation to the failure of the Bank of Orleans.
It says that bank is in as good condition as any of the New Orleans Banks, and that they are all in a perfectly solvent condition.

The condition of the New Orleans banks, we have recently published, and our readers know as much about them as we do. Their own published statement, if we recollect were repulsed by Mrs. C. and her sons, pursued by a company and two of them killed.

A fine quality of salt is now being made in the neighborhood of the Rio Grande. We get the above items, and all our other Texas news, from the best paper in New Orleans, the Pic-yune.

TENNESSEE ELECTIONS.

As a good deal of interest is felt in this action in relation to the Tennessee elections, we give below the vote in full as far as heard from, for Governor,
