American Circus.

Messrs. LUDLOW & SMITH,
PROPRIETORS.

This unrivalled Company of Equestrians and superb stud of well trained Steeds, will perform in Holly Springs, Thursday, the 28th, 29th and 30th of October, 1841.

To the public it is only necessary to say that this is the company in all its force, regularly attached to the American Theatre, New Orleans, where during the past winter they have elicited a patronage hitherto unknown in the annals of Equestrianism.

That wonderful boy, (only 6 years old)
MASTER HERNANDEZ.

Is attached to the above establishment, and during the entire season at New Orleans, he has been the object of universal admiration, many persons having travelled hundreds of miles to witness his surprising feats, which cannot be equalled by any performer of his age in the world.

Another great attraction in this establishment, to which he is exclusively attached, is MASTER DIAMOND.

The unsurpassed and unapproachable delineator of Ethiopian characters and negro dancing.

Messrs. Robinson, Whitlock, Eldred, D. ...

together with myself, came to the solemn determination never to enter the lodge again—upon receiving such treatment as I have from the said lodge, I feel it a duty, without wishing to disparage the ancient order of Free and Accepted Masonry, to caution all honorable men from having any thing whatever to do with it
