

COTTON BAGGING.

We have been shown a sample of cotton bagging by Mr Young of New Orleans, manufactured by Messrs. Haggard & Co Peace Dale, Rhode Island; it is a superior article, being 44 inches wide, 1 1-2 pounds to the yard, but weighs over that;—22 cents per yard this year.

Those wishing it for the crop of 1842, can be supplied by calling on M. Caruthers & Co. St. Charles St. New Orleans.

A Sample may be seen at the Marshall Inn.

We have in our goodly city, FORTY-SEVEN old bachelors within 200 yards of the Court House, and all looking out to marry fortunes—Godness, gracious!—Crow's feet and spectacles! It is said the old maids are quite as numerous and probably in the pursuit of the same "rara avis in terra."

The Eastern Papers will give this notice three insertions and forward accounts to the old bachelors for payment.

Saml. Marlin, a carpenter in this city, put an end to his existence, yesterday morning, by jumping from the top of the bridge into the Cumberland. His body has not yet been recovered. The same man made an unsuccessful attempt upon his life several years ago with a razor.—NASH. WHIG.
