of a high handed step by the Canadians:
It appears from depositions taken in the case before the proper authorities, that the dwelling house of Wm. Brown, of Alburgh, was broken open and entered by a gang of armed men in the uniform of British soldiers, about three o'clock on the morning of the 20th Sept.; that said Wm. Brown was awakened from his sleep by a noisy rush of men into a bed room adjoining the room where he and his wife were sleeping; that said Brown, calling to his sons and giving the alarm, was met at the door of his room by a man armed with a gun and bayonet, who threatened to shoot him if he made the least noise; that the remainder of the party, consisting of twelve or more, rushed into the adjoining apartment, where was sleeping James W. Grogan, and cried out as they entered, "Here he is!"—"shoot him!—blow his brains out!" that they seized said Grogan and dragged him from his bed and from the house, after gagging him, and thrust him into a wagon, which was at a convenient distance from the house, and drove off towards Canada.

Another deponent testifies that on Monday, about 11 o'clock, A. M. he met the same wagon and the same driver, whom he had seen the night before, with Grogan and four armed British dragoons, and four more dragoons mounted, who rode near the wagon, and were on their way from Clarenceville, in Canada, towards Missisquoi Bay Village.— Col. Grogan was badly wounded, and almost entirely naked.

NEW STATE.—The Huntington Advertiser, proposes to form a new State, by adding the northern portion of the State of Mississippi; and the part of Kentucky which West of the Tennessee river to the Western District of Tennessee. „By the seperation of these divisions from the several States” the Advertiser remarks, “and their formation into a State, it will be seen, without labouring to establish the fact, that great utility will result as it regards the State of Tennessee. we believe it is generally admitted that her length is now too great both for beauty and State purposes. Moreover, the Western District would become more valuable and would prosper in a greater, by the establishment of a new State.” Upon this subject the Advertiser promises to throw more light hereafter.
