

MEDICAL NOTICE.

THE Partnership existing for the last two years between Doctors REED & CARUTHERS, in practice of Medicine, is dissolved this day mutual consent.

1. REED has removed to the country, and settled himself upon Cold-Water, 10 miles north of Holly Springs, where he will be pleased to receive the calls of his friends in the line of profession.

2. CARUTHERS remains in Holly Springs, and can be found at his residence, or at the former office of Messrs Reed & Caruthers, except when engaged on professional business; and hopes to receive the patronage of the late firm.

As they have been very indulgent to their patients, and a dissolution having taken place, it becomes necessary that their business should be settled. Those who cannot pay them in money, which they are in great need of, will at least close their accounts by note. Either of the former partners is authorized to settle the accounts of the other.

AMERICAN LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE. GOODEY'S Lady's Book, for 1842, the splendid and valuable monthly periodical established. The only Magazine devoted to and conducted by members of their own sex composed entirely of original Articles, by the eminent writers of the age; and embellished with a larger number and greater variety of cost and attractive Pictorial Illustration than any similar publication.

EDITED BY

MRS. SARAH J. FAY, MORTON-McMICHAEL, L. H. SIGG, RENEY, L. A. GOODEY.

Contributors to each number.—Miss. C. Wick, N. P. Willis, Miss. E. Leslie, Mrs. Hents, Mrs. E. C. Embury, T. S. Arthur, Mrs. S. Fay, Mrs. E. F. Ellet.

In announcing to his numerous patrons public at large his arrangements for the year the proprietor of Goodey's Lady's Book takes occasion to acknowledge the unparalleled triumphant success of his Magazine, which has reached the extraordinary number of 40,000 COPIES MONTHLY.

Being a larger edition than has ever been published of any other work of any description in America. This success he is aware has been achieved by the vast superiority which the Lady's Book always maintained over the various contemporary magazines which have attempted to rival it, a superiority which he is still determined to preserve, by keeping it, in all its departments, Literary, Intellectual and Moral, as well as Pictorial, Emblematic, Artistic, and Mechanical. This is no idle boast, he appeals to the experience of the past twelve years, in all which time he has made no promise to the public which he has not fully performed, nor undertaken any thing which his means did not enable him to accomplish to the uttermost.

Entering, as he is about to do, on the completion of the Lady's Book, with increased and accumulated resources; with an amplification of the business in which he is engaged by long years of unremitting application with a subscription-list unparalleled in the history of literature; with numerous facilities not afforded by any other publisher; with well-digested and wide-extended arrangements; and above all, with a steadfast purpose of maintaining the reputation his work has reached, the proprietor hesitates not to incur expenses, which under the circumstances might well prove startling, means of which he will be enabled to make the Lady's Book the richest, the rarest, the most attractive and the most valuable periodical ever published, and extrinsically, ever offered to the public.
