

giving... portion of Paducah. The upper tributaries are all reported to be rising. Great distress and destruction of property on the Mississippi, is now beyond prevention.—Amer. Eagle.

COL. R. M. JOHNSON.

Speaking of Col. Johnson's nomination for the Presidency, the Richmond Enquirer says:

We oppose all such movements, and, among others, for the very strong reasons which the Gazette assigns. Let us rally and unite together upon principles—establish those principles first in the affections of the people, and in the votes of the National Legislature; and then, but not till then, discuss the merits of men who are best calculated to carry them out. It will be time enough to take up the subject at the close of '43, and hold the nominating Convention in the Spring of '44. "These are my sentiments."

The trial of Thomas L. Budd before the Criminal Court of this county for robbery, resulted in his acquittal. He is now on trial for embezzlement.

THOMAS L. BUDD, indicted before the Criminal Court of this county for false entry on the Books of the Union Bank of Tennessee with intent to defraud and embezzle, was on yesterday found guilty, and sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Nashville Banner.

FRIENDSHIP OF THE WORLD. When I see withered leaves drop from the trees in the beginning of the autumn, just such, thinks I, is the friendship of the world. While the sap of maintenance last, my friends swarm in abundance; but in the winter of my need they leave me naked. He is a happy man that hath a true friend in his need; but he is more truly happy that hath no need of his friend.

Man must love woman—necessity is laid upon him. She must affect his fortune, his judgment and his principles. If then she lend all her energies to the cause of truth, purity and goodness, she will soon rejoice in the conviction that her influence is as blessed as it is extensive. If she has brothers, they but furnish new channels through which her pure principles may flow to countless others, encouraging their virtues, confirming the doubtful and reclaiming the vicious. Women often lose the men they love, and who love them, by mere wantonness of coquetry—they reject and they repent—they should be careful not to take this step hastily, for a proud, high minded, gifted man will seldom ask a woman twice.

"How should a petition for a bank charter conclude?"

"And your memorialists will ever pray!" If any body dares say that is not our own we will acknowledge the corn.—New Orleans Picayune.

TRUE NOBILITY. There is no nobility like that of a great heart, for it never stoops to artifice, nor is wanting in good offices where they are seasonable.—Graciana.

Notice.

WE think it advisable again to notify all persons who have purchased land of the Pontotoc and Holly Springs Land Company, that all of their notes, judgments, &c. have been transferred to us, (agents of the New York and Mississippi Land Company,) and must request as early a settlement of the same as possible.

DAVID HUBBARD, Agents N. Y. & RICH'D BOLTON, Miss. Land Co. Holly Springs, March 16—3w. Office, Pontotoc, Mi.

TRUST SALE.

PURSUANT to a deed of trust executed by John I. Land, dec'd. late of the town of Portsmouth, Virginia, which deed is of record in the Clerk's office of Probates in the town of Holly Springs, Marshall county, State of Mississippi, for purposes therein set forth, I shall offer for sale at the court house door of said county, on the 15th day of April next, a Brick House and Lot, on the South side of the public square, nearly opposite the court house. The house is 40 feet by 22, two stories high, and neatly fitted below for a dry good store, lathed and plastered and finished neatly throughout, with a sufficiency of ground in the rear for a garden and yard. The house is the centre of a block of brick buildings, and one of the most desirable situations in the place for business. The title is unquestionable, but selling as trustee, such title only will be made as is vested in me. Terms made known on the day of sale. The house is the same lately kept as a dry goods store by H. Holmes for J. J. Land. And all persons indebted to the said store kept by H. Holmes, who was doing business for said Land, dec'd, either by bond or account, are requested to make payment to Dr. Euclid Bourland of this county, to whom I have made a power of attorney, to act for me, as trustee of J. J. Land, dec'd.

T. R. GRAY, Trustee,

Holly Springs, March 16, 1842—ds.

GOVERNMENT OF MISSISSIPPI.

Tilghman M. Tucker, Governor, 'till Jan. 1844

Lewis G. Galloway, Secretary of State.

Richard S. Graves, State Treasurer.

A. B. Sanders, Auditor of Public Accounts.

John D. Freeman, Attorney General.

JUDICIARY.

JUDGES OF THE HIGH COURT OF ERRORS AND APPEALS.

Wm. L. Sharkey, Edward Turner and J. F. Trotter.

This Court has no jurisdiction except what properly belongs to a Court of Appeals. Its sessions are holden on the first Mondays of Jan. and July at Jackson.

Chancellor of the State.—Robert H. Buckner. Clerk.—R. L. Dixon.

The Court of Chancery has jurisdiction over all pleas and complaints whatsoever cognizable in a Court of Equity, and holds two sessions annually, commencing on the 3rd Mondays in April and October for the Oxford District, and January and July at Jackson.

Judges and District Attorneys of the Circuit Courts.

Judges.

- 1st George Coalter,
- 2nd B. F. Caruthers,
- 3rd Charles C. Cage,
- 4th Albert G. Brown,
- 5th Henry Younger,
- 6th H. S. Bennett,
- 7th John H. Rollins,
- 8th J. M. Howry,
- 9th Stephen Adams,

District Attorneys.

- 1st E. G. Walker,
- 2nd G. F. Neel,
- 3rd Stanhope Posey,
- 4th E. G. Peyton,
- 5th John Watts,
- 6th Henry Gray,
- 7th F. Smith,
- 8th G. A. Wilson,
- 9th J. W. Thompson,

should have a threefold tendency condensed form, such valuable incidents as are everywhere viewed,—to direct the reader that deserve to be read—and to waste time and money upon which merit only to be burned. lications, that by their variety and overwhelm every urgent, impartial criticism, just mentioned, is one of the indispensable of auxiliaries to to discriminate.

Essays and tales, having in amusement, or both—Historical minutiae of events too minute elucidating it, and heightening it, be regarded as forming the And of indigenous poetry, or sometimes of no mean strain—cultivate the growing poetical our country.

The times appear, for several such a work—and not one alone public mind is feverish and irascible political strifes.—The science of literature is needed, and soothe that irritation. Going abroad:—They should not rebuke, or lashed by biting haunts. Ignorance lord—proportion of our people:—Every set in motion, to arouse the increase their number; so that popular government may not porous cloud, over the desired to accomplish all these a useful agent can be employed, the plan of the Messenger; in out in practice?

The south peculiarly require all the Union, south of Washington. Literary periodicals! No, there are probably at least two this contrast justified by the the native talent, or the action the Southern people compare Northern! No, for in wealth, may justly claim at last at brethren; and a domestic in our own, beyond all doubt all twice the leisure for reading they enjoy.

It was from a deep sense that the word Southron was name of this periodical; and of this periodical; and not to nourish local prejudices, or local interest. Far from any the editor's fervent wish, to month bound endearingly the silken bands of mutual kindness. Far from meditating hostility has already drawn, and he draw, much of his choice happy indeed will he deem pages, by making each reg battle, contribute in any, to dispel the lowering clouds that the peace of both, and to bring the sacred ties of fraternal

The Southern Literary nearly completed its seven south year. How far it has here uttered, is not far that believes, however, that it of them, than human we Practice fall short of Theology Oct. 21, 1841.