PROSPECTUS
 For a new Democratic Paper at Holly Springs, N. C., to be called
THE GUARDIAN
 ROBERT JOSSELYN, Editor.

DEMOCRACY loves the light which truth upon every subject. It studies no concealed resorts to no temporary expedients, it strictly to first principles. It is founded on the belief that the people are capable of government. To this end, it encourages general Education as the accompaniment of universal Suffrage. It seeks to enlighten a people, and to increase the prosperity and happiness of mankind. Hence, it is the patron of the Newspaper Press, because, its instrumentalities, the greatest amount of information can be communicated to the greatest number in the shortest time and at the least expense. Newspapers, well conducted in a free country, exert an almost incredible influence upon the public mind, important, or having, at some central point, in North Mississippi, a permanent weekly journal, devoted to the good old cause of Democratic Truth, and expressing the opinions and feelings of its numerous intelligent population, must be seen and acknowledged by all. From its central position in the midst of one of the largest and most fertile counties of the Chickasaw Purchase, its number and character of its inhabitants together with its mail facilities, now and soon to be enlarged, Holly Springs unquestionably presents equal, if not superior, advantages for the establishment of such a journal to any other town of the State.

It will be the aim of the editor to his paper what its name would indicate: a Guard to the Constitution of the State and the United States; a Guard to the Democratic Institutions of the South, which are guaranteed by those sacred instruments; a Guard to the Union, and to the pure fundamental principles of Democracy, which can strengthen, sustain and perpetuate it; a Guard also to the literary taste and interests of the community in which it may circulate. Arrangements have been made to procure the earliest information of the proceedings of the State Legislature and of Congress. Correspondents, both from Jackson and Wilmington City, have been secured, and they will spare no time, labour or expence necessary to render his paper worthy the patronage of the public.
 TERMS.—The GUARDIAN will be printed on fine imperial sheet, and furnished to subscribers at $3 per annum, payable in advance or $4 at the end of the year. The first number will be issued the first week in January 1842.
