all his competitors in the dirty track of defamation and vulgarity. Nothing, which he can say, will give us a moment's uneasiness or pain. His character as an editor is too well known to enable him materially to injure any honest man. It may be described in a few words. A facility of expression heedless of manner, a boldness of assertion regardless of truth, a vanity only equalled by his impudence, with a uniform consistency for slang, obscenity and profanity, mark the character of the editor and the man. His pretended quotations concerning the Union Bank and Governor McNutt, are unqualified falsehoods. It is rumored that he is about to leave the soil and air of freedom, which he has polluted with his presence, for Europe.
We congratulate the democracy upon the prospect of his early departure. The Sentinel can scarcely pass into worse hands. His advocacy is well calculated to bring reproach upon the very best cause. Like the Botany Bay convict, he

'Will leave his country for his countrys good.'

We beg pardon of our readers for this brief notice.

There has been here, during the last week, a very interesting meeting of the ministers of this Presbytery. It was well attended, and several clear, forcible and eloquent discourses were delivered. We learn that the Rev. Daniel Baker, the respected Pastor of the church at this place, will be absent for some weeks, attending protracted meetings in different parts of the country.
His labors, heretofore, in that particular branch of the gospel ministry, have been eminently useful.

HOLLY SPRINGS, Mi., March 10, 1842.

Agreeably to previous notice, a large number of the citizens of Marshall county assembled at the court house for the purpose of forming a County Agricultural Society, auxiliary to the State Agricultural Society at Jackson, Mi.

On motion, Hon. F. W. HURING was called to the chair and JOHN W. LUMPKIN, was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman read and explained the act of the Legislature of 1841, incorporating the State and County Agricultural Societies.
After which, he delivered a chaste and appropriate address upon the subject of agriculture.

The meeting then discussed the propriety of adopting the provisions of the act of the

1. This Society shall be called the Marshall County Agricultural Society, for the improvement of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

2. The Society shall be composed of such members as shall subscribe to the Constitution and pay the Treasurer two dollars at the time, and two dollars annually thereafter as long as they shall continue members.

3. The Officers of the Society shall be a President and three Vice Presidents, a Recording and Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer and Executive Committee of five persons, being members.

4. The officers shall be elected by the members present, the vote being by the ballot of the house, and no one to be considered as elected but by a majority of the members in attendance. All other elections shall be held annually, and conducted in like manner.

5. The President, or in his absence, senior Vice President, shall preside in all the meetings, fairs &c. of the society and perform such other duties as are incident to the chair

6. The President shall have power to appoint all committees, and call a meeting of the society as often as he may think it useful to the cause of agriculture, or any of the objects of this society.

7. It shall be the duty of the President to attend to any business pertaining to the business of the society, not provided for in this constitution.

8. It shall be the duty of the President, together with the Executive Committee, to select some suitable person to read an essay upon some subject connected with agriculture at the annual meetings of the society.

9. The Recording Secretary shall keep fair and correct minutes of the proceedings of the society; take charge of its books and papers, and have them at each meeting, and perform such other duties as may be required by the Society or President.

10. It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to conduct the correspondence of this society with other societies and persons upon agricultural subjects; make a written report on the first day of each annual meeting, giving satisfactory exhibits of all correspondence accompanied with such letters and documents as he may have received for the benefit of the society.

11. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect all moneys due to the society, and to pay all appropriations made by it on the order of the President. He shall keep an account of all receipts and disbursements, and make a report thereof at each stated meeting.

12. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to prepare suitable places for the meetings, fairs, &c. of the society, to arrange all articles for sale or exhibition, and to assist in the preservation of order and collection of revenue under the direction of the President, to fix the amount of premiums, and
