 Rev. C. PARISH, Ancient and modern Languages.

MR. LEWIS THOMSON, Steward.
MRS. SARAH B. THOMSON, Matron.

Young Ladies are now received at the Institute as boarders. In addition to the applications already made several more can be received. The Principal would especially recommend to parents who have to board out their daughters at school, to place them in the Institute. They will then be in the same building in which they recite all their lessons, and under the immediate care of the Matron of the Institute.

The Principal, or one of his assistant teachers, will diligently superintend their evening studies. Board, including lodging, fuel, lights, washing, at $10 per month, half boardance.

Terms per Session, half payable in advance.
 Junior Department, $10 00
 Middle Department, 16 00
 Senior Department, 20 00
 Seasonal fee per pupil, for servant's hire, fuel, &c. 75

We wish it to be particularly observed, that the Institute—dependent as it is on the avails of tuition alone—cannot be sustained without liberal patronage, and PROMPT PAYMENT OF TUITION FEES. Patrons are earnestly requested to see that pupils enter the Institute, and join their classes at the commencement of the session. In case however when this is impracticable, tuition will be charged only from the time of entrance to the close of the session—also, when there is a loss of time for a month or more, occasioned by the sickness of the pupil, a deduction shall be made.

The course of instruction in this Institute will be thorough and efficient, and is destined to embrace the term of three years from the time of entering the Junior Department.

A beautiful Cabinet is already in possession of the faculty. A splendid Philosophical, Astronomical and Chemical apparatus will be procured for this Institute at the earliest convenience. Negotiations have already been entered into with an artist of Boston to furnish the same. As soon as circumstances will permit, a Library and Reading Room will be furnished for the use of the pupils.

A regular boarding house will be provided for young ladies from abroad as soon as the requisite accommodations can be obtained, where parents can, at their option, place their daughters, by which the immediate supervision of these teachers may at all times be secured. But for the present pupils can obtain board and lodging in private families.
