GEN. JACKSON—by Bancroft. I heard it rumored, says Langley's advertiser that the MSS. and Cor. of Gen. Andrew Jackson are committed to the editorial charge of Bancroft, Esq., who, it is said, will edit them for publication, together with a graphical memoir of the life and times of the General. If this be so, he could have been selected better for such a task, and the history of our affairs now living will awaken so much interest as that of the venerated Washington and Orleans.

There are 168 members in the banks of this State. 55 of whom are indebted $111,675 being an average of $2000 each. The highest indebtedness is $5,500. No wonder the legislature of the past winter was so very lenient to these soulless corporations.

AMSTERDAM BILL. It is reported that the agents of Hope & Co. of Amsterdam have made proposals to take the whole of the Erie Canal authorized by the late act of 1836 at 6 per cent. If this be true, it would certainly have a favorable influence on the Erie Canal market. We know not the exact date the statement is made, and do not doubt it.
