 Oxford, May 24th, 1842.—19—tf.

MR EDITOR:—I saw in your paper of the 24th of May inst. a reward of $50 for my apprehension, by a man by the name of R. B. Houston, of Lafayette County, Miss, for stealing 6 negroes from him, the said Houston, on the 16th instant.
 I have surrendered myself to the proper authorities; they have examined the charges preferred against me by said Houston, and discharged me.
 I have evidence sufficient in my possession to prove myself clear and guiltless before any court on Earth.
 The rightful owner of the negroes is now in Mount Pleasant, Marshal county. I acted through motives of benevolence in order to assist a friendless and lone female. The charge is false and groundless.
 JAMES S. McCLURE.
 May 26th 1842.

The most of us were present on the trial before the court of inquiry, and from the testimony, we believe the accused is wholly innocent and guilt-less of the charge. We further believe that the accused was actuated by pure benevolence, and is deserving all praise for the manner in which he acted in the matter.
