Mrs. W. M. Perry

Transcribed by Janice Switcher and Helah Wilson from the Belmont Times (Belmont, Miss.), No. 2, dated February 11, 1927.

Mrs. Sallie Perry, age 61, died at her home in North Belmont, Saturday morning, Feb. 5th. She was stricken with measles and developed pneumonia. Her husband, W.M. Perry, died one week and four hours before her death.

The funeral services were held at Joel Cemetery by Rev. Chas. Nelson of the Baptist church, of which she was a member, Sunday afternoon; in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. She is survived by two sons, John and Herbert, and one daughter, Mrs. R. O. Campbell, all of this place.

The Times extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Died

Mrs. W. M. Perry, age 61, died in her home in North Belmont, Saturday Feb. 5, 1927.

She was stricken with measles on Monday last. She was devoted Christian woman and a member of the Missonary Baptist church, and was the widow of the late Esq. W. M. Perry who passed away one week before. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chas. Nelson Sunday and her remains were laid to rest in Joel cemetery.

A dear one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still;
A place is vacant in our home.
That ne`r can be filled.

We miss you, dear mother,
Since you went away,
We miss your loving words
That cheered us each day,
Sometimes we wonder why you left us,
In sorrow and in pain,
Then we think of our Redeemer
Who provided for us to meet again.
Now you have left us, dear mother,
And your loving smiles are gone,
Let us pray to meet you with our Savior,
And rejoice around the Throne.

Our prayers and our deepest sympathy are for the bereaved ones.
